

UNITED COUNCIL

Ancient Order of Free Gardeners, Inc.

The following questions have been selected to be intuitive rather than intimidating. Interviews should feel more like a conversation rather than a traditional interview. The goal is to learn who the seeker is and what they expect from membership in the Order.

1. “Tell us a little about what drew you to the Free Gardeners.” A gentle opener that lets them share their story.
2. “What does the idea of ‘cultivating growth’—in yourself or in others—mean to you?”
3. “Have you ever been part of a community or organization that felt meaningful to you?” Let’s them talk about belonging without pressure.
4. “What kinds of skills or qualities do you enjoy bringing to a group?”
5. “Our Order values service to man and nature. What does this service look to you?”
6. “What do you hope to gain from joining a lodge?”
7. “What do you hope to give to a lodge?”
8. “The Order has a long history of fellowship. What does good fellowship look like to you?”
9. “How do you handle disagreements or differences of opinion within a group?”
10. “What values guide you when you’re making decisions?”
11. “What kind of environment helps you feel most grounded or inspired?”
12. “What does the idea of ‘tending one’s inner garden’ bring to mind for you?”
13. “Is there anything you’d like to ask us about the lodge, our work, or our traditions?” A respectful closing that invites mutual exchange.

“A Fructibus Eorum Cognoscetis Eos”